- What does Disability Insurance Cover?

- Insurance policy that pays disability benefit as a partial replacement of income lost due to illness or injury. Most disability insurance policies pay a fixed sum for a fixed period, while others pay a monthly sum for the entire period the insured is disabled from earning suitable income (as determined by his or her qualifications, experience, and training).

There are two types of disability policies:

Short-term disability policies have a maximum benefit of two years.

Long-term disability policies have benefits that can last the rest of your life.
